YALE TEAM IS DEFEATED

BOSTON COLLEGE ELEVEN WINS HARD FIGHT, 5 TO 3

Half Back Fitzpatrick Makes Sensational Kick in Last Quarter.

(By Universal Service.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Some surprises occurred in college football games today when Yale went down to defeat at the hands of, rather than the feet of the Boston College eleven, and Cornell was smothered by Colgate.

Boston College defeated Yale, 5 to 3, in the game at New Haven, in a contest marked by strenuous effort on both sides. Jim Fitzpatrick, the Boston right half back, proved the hero of the day, kicking a field goal from Yale's forty-five-yard line that settled the game against Yale. Harvard's former wonder man, Charley Brickley, who coached the Boston team two years ago and predicted great things for Fitzpatrick, wore a broad grin as he watched the play. The half back's great kick came two minutes before the end of the last quarter and was as unexpected by the great throng of fans as it was sensational and spectacular, marking one of the most dramatic upsets in Yale's football history.

The end of the third quarter saw Yale with three points and Boston with none. As the teams struggled through the fourth quarter, the home crowd looked to the 15,000 persons in the Yale stadium as if Yale must win. Fitzpatrick's kick brought sorrow to thousands of Yale rooters.

Browns Lose to Harvard.
Harvard, playing at the home grounds at Cambridge, took Browns measure, 7 to 0. Brown developed some ginger in the third period when, by short rushes and two forward passes, the ball was carried to Harvard's twenty-yard line. Fox, Brown's second string quarterback, easily a goal from the field from his twenty-seven yard line, but the ball hit the uprights.

Harvard appeared set for a second touchdown in the second period, but time was called with the ball two yards from the goal line. Both sides accomplished some fine forward pass work. Joe Ryan, the Crimson's right wing, handling three for twenty-five yards' gain, while Fox passed to Al-bright, Brown's right wing, for twenty yards in two aerials.

Princeton defeated Rochester, 34 to 0, in today's game at Princeton, outclassing the visiting eleven throughout the first half of the game. The Tigers rolled up a score of 13 points in the first quarter and 21 in the second period, giving a total of 34. Then, with grim determination, the Rochester team fought successfully through the remaining half to keep Princeton from piling up more points. But the visitors could not score.

Make Long Run to Goal.
In the first quarter, Metcalf, Rochester's left half back, punted, and Garrity, the Tigers' full back, got the first down on the forty-three-yard line. In the next play Garrity went around the end for a touchdown.

Colgate's smothering of Cornell by 21 to 0 at the latter's home field at Ithaca, was an earned victory. Colgate outplayed the eleven from the onset, temple of learning at every angle of the game. Incidentally, Colgate unraveled one of the greatest all-around back fields that has been seen on a Cornell field for years. In Anderson and Watkins, Colgate has two very clever running backs, who dodged and fought their way through Cornell time after time, while Gilie smashed through the Ithacans' forwards like a bullet.

Forward Pass Works.
The undoing of the Cornell eleven was achieved largely through skillful use of the forward pass, in which Colgate worked eight times for good gains. The first and third touchdowns were scored by passes from Anderson to Watkins. The spectacular feature of the game was Anderson's run through the whole Cornell team for a touchdown.

At West Point today the Army eleven caught a Tartar in the University of Maine, the Down Easters holding the soldiers to a close-margin victory of 6 to 0. It is true that several of the Army's best players were not in today's struggle because of injuries, but nevertheless the plucky collegians stood the Army off twice when the cadets had made their way far down the field with the ball and compelled the West Pointers to work hard for their only touchdown.

FORK UNION CADETS WIN FROM MCGUIRE'S ELEVEN

Play Consistent Football Throughout Game and Carry Off Honors

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FORK UNION, VA., Oct. 18.—Coach "Mac" Pitt's charges today defeated McGuire's eleven easily, the score being 20 to 6. The Richmond team put up a plucky fight, but the cadets proved more than a match for them. The visitors' lone touchdown was made on a fumble in the first quarter near their thirteen-yard line. Newman, left end, covering the ball and placing it across the goal line, foot was not kicked.

The locals played consistent football throughout the game. Davis and Thompson in the backfield displaying exceptional proficiency in passing and in running for gains. In making the second touchdown the locals, Thompson made a beautiful run of forty yards.

BACK FIELD PROVES WEAK

VA. TECH LOSES CONTEST TO GEORGETOWN ELEVEN

Crisp, One-Handed Quarter Back, Plays Clever Football, but Makes Costly Fumbles.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Georgetown won a decisive victory over Virginia Polytechnic Institute's heavy eleven here today, 33 to 7. Virginia Tech, said to have the strongest back field in the country, made a poor showing on the defense, and frequently Georgetown's stellar captain, McQuade, circled their undefended ends for long gains. Georgetown's scoring was also accomplished by their speedy back field battering away at Tech's line, with the aid of excellent interference.

In the third quarter Georgetown substituted an entire second string team, and it showed up equally as well as the varsity. Crisp, Virginia Tech's one-handed quarter back, played clever football, although his stubbed hand on several occasions precipitated costly fumbles. Their lone score was made in the last quarter, when the referee allowed Godsey to score on an "onside" kick by Crisp, a very rare occurrence in football. The line-up:

BLACKSTONE WINS, 21 TO 0

Defeats Chatham Training School in Football Contest Full of Heavy Plays.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BLACKSTONE, VA., Oct. 18.—Blackstone Military Academy and Chatham Training School fought here today in a game full of heavy plays and ground gaining, the locals taking the contest by a score of 21 to 0.

Hoppe, C. T. S., received forward passes well, and Guthrie, left end, was easily the star in mowing down the opposing players. The visitors' line weakened considerably in the last half. Blackstone played stellar offensive and defensive football throughout the game. The line-up:

FIGHT TO SCORELESS TIE
John Marshall High School Eleven and Newport News Battle to 0-to-0 Score.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Oct. 18.—Newport News High School and John Marshall, of Richmond, fought here to a scoreless tie this afternoon in one of the fastest and snappiest prep football contests ever witnessed on the local gridiron. At the outset the local eleven was not overconfident of victory, and treated the holding of the John Marshall team as somewhat of a triumph.

The backfield of the John Marshall team played stellar football throughout the game, executing difficult forward passes at critical stages of the game, but none went for touchdowns. In the fourth quarter the ball was nearest a goal than at any other time during the game, when it was in the hands of the visitors on the locals' twenty-yard line. A drop kick failed to pass over the bars and in a few minutes the game came to an end, with the score being 0 to 0.
